Who suffer from nervous and physical debility great help is found in taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It pro-duces the rapid effect of a stimulant, without the injurious reaction that follows the use of stimulants.

The result of taking this medicine is a permanent increase of strength and vigor, both of mind and body.

"I find Ayer's Sareaparilla just what I have needed for a long time. I have tried different medicines or tonics, but never found a cure until I used this. My trouble has been a low state of the blood, causing faint turns."—Lens O'Connor, 121 Vernon st., Boston,

"I have been a victim for the past two years of general weakness with turns of fainting. Have tried vari-ous remedies, but with little relief till I used Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Some six months since I began to use this remedy and am greatly benefited."-Miss K. E White, Somerville, Mass.

"This is to certify that I have been using Ayer's Sarsaparilla for some time, and it has done me a world of good. It has cured my headache, cleared my blood and helped me in every way, and I am dete use it so long as I need such a medicine."—Mrs. Taff, 152 1st street, Lowell, Mass.

A STRIKE MAY FOLLOW. Expiration of the Agreement Between the Dock Companies and Workmen. LONDON, Nov. 3.-The arrangements made one year ago between the dock companies and the representatives of the working dockers expire by limitation today.

Apprehension is felt that the men will refuse the new terms and insist on striking, although the executive officers of the dockers'union have thus far influenced the great majority of the laborers to remain at work pending a final decision upon the co-operative scheme proposed by the companies. A number of malcontents have, however, already struck at the Albert-Victoria docks.

The judge says a receivership is not only proper and necessary, but, in the opinion of the court, not only one but two receivers should be appointed. Combine of Cordage Makers. Boston, Nov. 3 .- Nearly all the cordage-

The Czarevitch to Visit America. LONDON, Nov. 3.-A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the reluctance of the czarina to permit her son, the czarvitch, to make a voyage around the world, has at length been over-come by the argument that it would prove a valuable experience in fitting him for the future sovereignity of Russia. The czarevitch will not, however, visit Constantinople, Athens being the starting point of his journey. He will in all probability cross the Pacific after visiting India and China, and call at San Francisco. It is not yet determined whether the STAR from Caldwell, Ohio, regarding republi-American part of the journey shall be overland or around the southern part of the continent.

LONDON, Nov. 3.-British naval experts are a good deal interested in a very valuable protection against the torpedo, which has been submitted to the admiralty. Its importance may be estimated from the fact that in something like four minutes the largest battle ship in the service can be protected from the at-tacks of any number of torpedoes, no matter how skilfully they may be directed. The admiralty refuses all information concerning the device, but certain experts describe it as so simple that the wonder is that it was never thought of before. It will be submitted to a final test with the Victoria torpedo, an inven-tion of a young Victoria, N. S. W.man, which is claimed to possess certain qualities which ren-der it unusually difficult to discern its course.

Giniselli, the manager of the circus. The horse knocked the man down and bit him and trampled upon him, mangling him in a terrible manner, in full view of the spectators. The czar and his family abruptly withdrew from the imperial box and left the building. A general panic among the spec-tators followed and the performance was

IN PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY. The Effect of the New Election Law Will Be Awaited With Interest.

From The STAR's Regular Correspondent. HYATTSVILLE, Nov. 3. Much interest is felt here as to what the operation of the new election law will show. Tomorrow's contest only can satisfy the inquiry. Here in Prince George's there will be probably found losses and gains for both parties in the various districts. In this (Bladensburg) district the democrats will gain from the fact that many colored republicans are stricken from the registrar's list by the operation of the law, while in Aquasco, one of the remote districts from the cities, the majority of those cut off are white democrats, who have been for years residing outside of the state, but who came here regularly to vote, and there the democrats will lose.

As to the general indications from our end of the fifth district it must be conceded that they are favorable to Compton. At the time of the last election there were many personal animosities against Compton, individual re-sentments based, in many instances, upon dis-appointed hopes for office. There is a general

WHAT WILL THE HARVEST BE? Democrats Figuring Up a Majority of

44 in the Next House. WHERE THEY EXPECT TO MAKE A NET GAIN OF 34 MEMBERS - SPECULATIONS AS TO THE RESULT OF THE ELECTIONS TOMORROW-INFLUENCES WHICH WILL AFFECT THE ELECTION.

It is a very uncertain thing when democrats count on gains in republican strongolds. They expect that the enactment of the new tariff law and the subsequent rise in the prices of goods will cost the republicans many votes, particularly in the northwest. But it must be remembered that in many of the districts in which the democrate lican majorities to overcome. They may reduce these majorities considerably and yet not elect their candidates. At the last congressional election the republicans ran the democrats down to bed rock, so that now the democrats can, from the nature of things, have but a few losses to count against the gains they may make. The fact that it is an off year, and that the republicans are respon-sible for legislation which has been enacted and must necessarily displease some one, the circumstance of the redistricting of Ohio in the interest of the democrats, the trouble some of the republican candidates are having over some of their patronage, all go to increase the chances of the democrats having the next House by a good majority.

WHERE THE DEMOCRATS EXPECT GAINS.

figures to be had on the election. By talks with

At the democratic headquarters there are no

the most conservative democrats to be found, who have been watching the campaign, and by closely scanning the reports from the several districts where there are contests, it appears that the democrats are likely to gain one member in Alabama, Arkansas I, California I, Connecticut 2, Massachusetts 1, Iowa 2, Kansas 2, Kentucky 1. Maryland 2, Michigan 2, Missouri 2, Minnesota 1, New Hampshire 1, New York 2, North Carolina 1, Ohio 7, Pennsylvania 2, South Carolina 1, Tennesseee 1, Illinois 1, Virginia 2, Wisconsin 1. In Arkansas two democrats were turned out of this Congress on contests, and it might be expected, naturally, that they would both be returned, making a gain of two from the way the delegation now stands, but it is feared that Mr. Breckenridge is going to be defeated, In Louisiana the democrats expect to defeat Coleman, but they fear also that they are going to lose one man, so no gain is counted there. A gain of two and a loss of one in Illinois are expected by Illinois demo-crats, making a net gain of one. The Massachusetts democrats have expected a gain of two in that state, but the illness of Andrew places his district in doubt, and they, therefore, claim but one as a gain. Ewart (rep.) will probably be elected in North Carolina and in West Virginia there is liable to be a stand off. The democrats in Virginia, New York and Iowa expect more than they claim. Expectations from a rock-ribbed republican state like lowa have to be discounted by the democrats, but they feel morally certain of a gain of two there. The Rhode Island democrats expect to elect a member. FIGURING UP A NET DEMOCRATIC GAIN OF THIRTY-

It appears from this that the democrats are liable to make a gain of 37. They will almost certainly lose two in Indiana and one in Delaware. This would give them a net gain of 34 on these figures. The republicans gain two members which the democrats do not lose-the one from

Idaho and one from Wyoming, making the total

There are now 151 democrats in the House. A net gain of 34 would give them 188 in the next House. This would give them a majority HIS FUTURE AT STAKE.

membership of the House 332.

"Private" Dalzell writes to THE EVENING can prospects in that state as follows: "The Ohio campaign closes with the assured promise of a big victory on Tuesday next.

"The democrats are divided and distracted; some are for Reemlin, some for Brice, but mighty few for Campbell. "It is a life and death struggle among themselves. Should Ohio go democratic it makes Jim Campbell a formidable candidate against Hill and Cleveland; but should it go republican, 'farewell, a long farewell to all his glory.' The anti-Campbell faction know that a party success means personal destruction to them, and the war is to the knife and the knife to the hilt, and so Ohio is good for 20,000 republican majority this year. Foster, McKinley and Poorman, though in districts with big democratic majorities, are likely to go in, and the Ohio delegation in Congress will be two-thirds republican. Twenty thousand democrats who voted for Campbell last year and all the republicans who voted for him, too, will cast their solid vote with us on Tuesday, and another 20,000 disgruntled democrats will stay at
